About Us

For over 70 years the Citco Group of Companies (collectively referred to as Citco) have been providing a wide variety of corporate, trust and fund administration services to private and institutional clients around the world. Currently, we have self-run offices in more than 40 countries. Citco is privately held and continues to be majority owned and managed by its founding family. Our core principles and standards value ethical behavior and integrity in doing business. These values have been passed through the generations of Citco employees and helped us attain our position as the global industry leader in fund administration, corporate and trust services. Our corporate history and culture provide our clients with stability in uncertain times.
